Illinois Students
The University of Illinois has 31,253 undergraduate and 10,697 graduate and professional students come from all 50 states and over 118 countries. In 2010-2011, the African American, Asian American, Latino/a, and Native American populations represented 27% of the student body.

The Illinois Advantage
Illinois challenges students to think intellectually, to develop into highly educated individuals and become lifelong learners. You'll learn from world-renowned professors alongside intelligent peers who share your passions. In fact, according to the US News & World Report, America's Best Colleges 2012, Illinois was ranked the 13th best public university in the United States.

Sports
With 21 NCAA Division I, 47 club sports, and 3 adapted athletics teams on campus, every day is game day! By the time you leave, as they say on campus, you will bleed orange and blue!

Performing Arts
Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, which boosts four indoor theatres and an outdoor amphitheater, hosts over 300 events every year! Great discounts to University of Illinois students.

Student Organizations
With more than 1,000 Registered Student Organizations (RSOs), you'll be sure to find something that fits your interest.
